

2006 Fall - Winter EVENTS

STC

SOCIETY FOR TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION

Washington, DC Chapter The Capital Chapter

Register @ <http://www.stcfdc.org/calendar.shtml>

The WDC Chapter's 2006-2007 technical communication competitions are now open!

Please consider participating this year in one or both competitions: online communication and technical publications.

For more information see:

<http://www.stcfdc.org/compete.shtml>

Deadline: 7 p.m., Mon, October 16, 2006

THURS, SEPTEMBER 21, 2006, 6:00 - 9:00

Opening Social

Come to STC WDC's Opening Social and learn more about your local STC WDC chapter! Meet and greet chapter officers, fellow members, and new and prospective members for a casual evening of networking. Whether you're an existing or a prospective member, come check out STC WDC, and learn about the many membership benefits, the different committees, and Special Interest Groups within the STC WDC.

Location: Capitol City Brewing Co,
Washington, DC

$20-25 based on reservation

TUES, OCTOBER 10, 2006, 6:00 - 9:30

Policies & Procedures: Best Practices From Real Experience

Required to write policies & procedures, or just interested in learning more about writing them? Then come listen to Diana relate her experiences while creating policies and procedures for the government.

Speaker: Diana Combs

Location: NRECA, Arlington, VA

$25-30 based on reservation

WED, OCTOBER 25, 2006, 1:00 - 2:30

Hosted STC Telephone Seminar: Ten Ways to Increase Your Value as a Technical Communicator

This presentation will explore 10 ways you can use your talent and expertise to provide important services to your employer. It will also discuss how to market those services more effectively within your organization.

For each area, the speaker will suggest how to supplement your skills set.

Speaker: Holly Harkness

Location: ICF Consulting, Washington, DC

$10 for all attendees

THURS, NOVEMBER 9, 2006, 6:00 - 9:30

Project Management and Content Development Progression

This two-subject progression will give you three opportunities to hear each presentation and provide networking time during the middle of the event, allowing a little more flexibility for everyone's schedules.

Project management is an important skill for all technical communicators and we're all required to develop content. Come hear some great tips on both subjects during 45-minute sessions.

Speakers: Leslie O'Flahvavan and TBD

Location: Bethesda-Chevy Chase Regional Services Center, Bethesda, MD

$25-30 based on reservation

WED, DECEMBER 6, 2006, 1:00 - 2:30

Hosted STC Telephone Seminar: Creating Training that Sticks

This fun and interactive session will grab you from the beginning and hold you 'til the end as you learn to create effective and engaging training. You will acquire the knowledge you need to begin building superior training immediately and experience the results of using such knowledge in your development process.

Speaker: Maggie Haenel

Location: Nortel Government Solutions,
Fairfax, VA

$10 for all attendees

TUES, DECEMBER 12, 2006, 6:00 - 9:00

Holiday Social

Have a success story or a concern you'd like to share with your peers? Just need an evening to relax during this busy holiday season?

Then join us for a casual but festive evening of conversation and delicious food.

Location: The Boulevard Woodgrill,
Arlington, VA

$25-30 based on reservation

Register @ <http://www.stcfdc.org/calendar.shtml>